

VISION

Women Helping Women Heal
from Addiction, Violence, Poverty and Homelessness

PHILOSOPHY

Supporting women's health, wellness, healing and recovery;
in order to facilitate this, women need to be free from addiction(s)

MISSION STATEMENT

Chrysalis Society will ensure the provision of:

- A) safe, supportive, home-like environments in which women, including trans women, with the support of professional staff, can empower themselves to learn new ways of living
- B) structured programming that demonstrates through education and holistic practices how to live without addiction(s), violence, oppression, poverty and homelessness
- C) advocacy and supports for women seeking community-based resources to address their individual needs
